

Babu Banarasi Das University, Lucknow

Master of Dental Surgery

Ist,IIInd,IIIrd Year

MDS 25 (ORAL PATHOLOGY)	MDS	CO1. Understand the normal morph physiological functions of the human body and co-relate clinical features of various pathologies of the oral and Para-oral structures. CO2. To understand the detailed pathogenesis and molecular basis of head and neck pathologies and their histopathological features and thereby to arrive at a final diagnosis. CO3. To understand and carry out conventional and advanced cytological, hematological and histopathological techniques. CO4. To be proficient in methodologically analyzing the problem, to correlate various aspects and to arrive at a final diagnosis as a part of providing solution to the problem presented.
-------------------------------------	-----	--

PSO1	The different types of pathological processes, that involve the oral cavity.
PSO2	Microscopic study of common lesions affecting oral tissues through microscopic slides & projection slides.